Trenton, Thursday, Nov. 16.

This we do to Make Room for Christmas Furniture.

There is a little different class of furniture sold at Christmas time from most other times of the year. At Christmas time the furniture business runs largely to fancifully gotten up affairs. True there are many staple articles of furniture sold, but in the main it is fancy stock. So we will make a sale of a goodly part of our staple furniture in order to house the Christmas stock that is already here in storage awaiting a place in the display rooms.

Solid oak case set dining room chairs, 79c. Large arm rockers, cobbler's leather seat, antique oak or mahogany, are $1.75. Full size upholstered couch covered in heavy velvet, wide back, easy rolling head $6.75. A luxuriously gotten up couch, closely tufted in heavy velvet, $8.00. News of the County

Special Correspondence from Near-by Towns.

DOYLESTOWN.

The result of the election is still being discussed with more or less interest in Doylestown, and the close call the Republicans had for some of the offices will be remembered for some time. The result of the balloting shows that Bucks is a peculiar county in the matter of voting. With no rabid factions in either party it is rather peculiar that there should have been so much outting of tickets. Had there been any very objectionable candidates on the Republican ticket it might be explained upon that ground, but the men nominated had peculiar qualifications for the offices they sought, so the matter will remain something of a mystery. Those Republicans who stood by the ticket are glad that the fight has been won, and they claim, some of them, that Democrats had the best opportunity to win that they have enjoyed in years, but others aver that the election should serve as a lesson in future. When one recalls the snatching majorities of '96 some of the majorities this year seem exceedingly small. However, Republicans will still hold the "Bow," and there is much satisfaction felt upon that score alone. The official count of the returns was made by the court on Thursday afternoon last. Some of the returns were found to contain errors, in consequence of which the election boards of Allentown, Newtown township and the First and Second Wards of Doylestown, were called before the court to explain some of the mistakes. In Newtown township ten votes too many had been recorded for Barnett, and one too many for Callahan in Allentown. The errors were merely clerical, but occasioned considerable trouble for the down county officers. A frequent mistake made by election officers is the practice of sealing the Prothonotary's return in the box, which prevents the publication of a complete table until the official count is made. No announcement concerning the appointment of deputies has yet been made by the successful candidates. The total vote and majorities are as follows:—

Bucks County is sustaining her reputation as a poor place for lawyers to seek a livelihood. Next Monday the November term of court will fall due, and there are so few cases that both civil and criminal courts will be held the same week. This will involve the presence of but one set of jurors aside from the Grand Jury. It is probable that the criminal cases will all be disposed of by Tuesday evening, and the civil cases are even fewer in number, but require more time as a rule. It is not likely that court will be in session longer than Thursday. As already stated this condition of affairs is hard on the lawyers, but saves an immense amount of money to the county and individuals. It is a common thing nowadays to hear attorneys complain of the dearth of business. Justices of the Peace, real estate and conveying firms, trust companies, etc., have certainly made deep inroads upon the lawyer's business. In the olden times the lawyer, like the family physician, was an institution the public needed to consult upon frequent occasions, but today in every community there are good business men who attend to all the routine affairs that do not require the services of a court and jury. It is said this has come about through the public school and the introduction of higher branches of learning in these little county colleges. There are no cases of special interest on the list for next week.

The Doylestown Trust Company has been appointed trustee of the Doylestown and Willow Grove trolley road under the mortgage securing the indebtedness of the Bucks County Railway Company, former owners of the property. This appointment was made upon petition of George D. Widener, of the Union Traction Company, who, as placed in the Gazette some time ago, has purchased the bonds of the company. In fact the Traction company has practically taken hold of the road. The Superintendent of the Doylestown road. When a shaft of some was occurred on the line a few evenings ago the break was repaired by the Traction company, which indicates that the little road will in future be under the guardianship of that big corporation.

TULLYTOWN.

Memorial services were held at the Christian Church last Sunday morning in memory of the late Oscar L. Barron. Rev. William Wright, the pastor, delivered the address to an audience that nearly filled the little auditorium. Mr. Wright, who had been one of the most intimate friends of the deceased, spoke of the life and character of the deceased as he knew him, as he wished to remember him in the full strength of his vigorous and noble manhood before the dread disease that resulted in his death had seized him.

To the many friends, and especially to those of Mr. Barron's pupils who were present, the speaker commended the departed as an example which they could look up to; the memory of his genial, pure and noble manhood would be to them a valuable lesson which they should cherish and which would make them better men and women.

The music appropriate to the occasion was rendered by a choir of girls, former pupils of Mr. Barron.

Mr. Tighman Barron, father of the late principal, and two other brothers listened to the address.

One of the events of the week which deserved to have been better attended by the residents of this town than was actually the case was the entertainment given at the M. E. Church last Friday evening by Cornwalls J. Davis, singer, elocutionist and impersonator.

Mr. Davis is the possessor of a fine voice, and his songs as well as his recitations and impersonations, were enthusiastically received by the audience. A great many more than attended would undoubtedly have enjoyed this really good entertainment had they not forgotten the date, which had been advertised several weeks ahead.

A number of the residents of the town have been visitors to the Export Exposition this week. Those who have not already seen the exhibits there should avail themselves of the opportunity during the few remaining weeks to spend at least one day at the Exposition.

The regular meeting of the Board of School Directors was held on Monday evening. The present teacher, Mr. Stuckert, who had been substituting for Mr. Barron during his illness, was elected principal for the balance of the present school year.

Messrs. John Burton, Jr., O. P. Chamberlain and A. R. Wagenknecht were the guests of the Mercer County Wheelmen at their banquet in Trenton on last Tuesday. They are a unit in their praise of the hospitality of the M. C. W.

The residence of Mrs. Stanfield Smith, one of the finest in town, has just been renovated by a new coat of paint. The work was done by Tullytown's enterprising artist, Robert Chase.

The whooping cough epidemic still prevails among the younger members of the community, and some children of more mature years have joined in the whooping chorus.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barrett and family, of Philadelphia, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Barrett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Parr.

Harry Simpson, superintendent of the Floral Exchange greenhouses, made a business trip to Philadelphia on Wednesday.

NEWPORTVILLE.

Miss Edna McCoy is visiting in Bristol this week.

William Schmidt was visiting his parents on Sunday.

Miss Louisa B. Rose was visiting in town several days last week.

Charles Matthews, our enterprising carriage builder, is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hardman, of Bristol, were visiting George Dunlap and family on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Snyder and Miss Annie Asay visited the National Export Exposition on Saturday.

Miss Lettie Vandegrift and Mrs. H. M. Everett were visiting Mrs. Joseph Stuckhouse at Emile last Thursday.

James Cummings, now a resident of the County Home and a former resident of Newportville, is visiting friends about town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Vandegrift, of Wisahickon, were visiting the former's sister, Mrs. H. M. Everett, on Saturday and Sunday.

Philip H. Barnes, of Camden, a former resident of Newportville, and a grandson of the late Isaac P. Morris, was looking up old friends about town on Sunday.

The next meeting of the Union Literary Society will be held in Vandegrift's Hall on Nov. 22 with Jesse C. Everett and Dr. Horace Plickenstein as chief dignitaries on "Resolved, That electricity is more useful than steam." Everybody welcome.

Several persons from our village attended the pig and poultry supper in Johnson's Hall, Humesville, on Saturday evening. The proceeds of the supper were $114. These supports are well patronized by the people of Humesville and vicinity as everyone knows that the Ladies' Aid gives a fine one for twenty-five cents.

There is more catarrh in this section of the county than at all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure, it cures in 3 to 5 days internally it drains from the blood and removes all impurities from the system. It cures for one dollar for any case it fails to cure. Send for circular and sample free. J. C. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the best.
